This document supersedes EN 13782:2005.

The main changes in comparison to EN 13782:2005 are:

- a) chapters have been restructured and condensed in form and content;
- b) technical additions in reference to the Eurocodes;
- c) adjustments of the notations used in the Eurocodes;
- d) editorial corrections and changes.

Introduction

The object of this European Standard is to provide safety requirements for tents. The safety requirements are aimed to safe-guard persons and objects against damage caused by design, manufacturing and operation of these structures.

These guidelines have been drawn up according to past experience and risk analysis.

Existing national rules concerning health and safety of workers remain untouched.

1 Scope

This European Standard specifies safety requirements which need to be observed at design, calculation, manufacture, installation, maintenance, of mobile, temporary installed tents with more than 50 m² ground area.

This European Standard applies also to multiple small tents which are normally not covered by this standard and will be installed close together and exceed 50 m² in sum.

NOTE Information is given in Annex C on Examination and Approval.
