Foreword

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards bodies (ISO member bodies). The work of preparing International Standards is normally carried out through ISO technical committees. Each member body interested in a subject for which a technical committee has been established has the right to be represented on that committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work. ISO collaborates closely with the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC) on all matters of electrotechnical standardization.

Draft International Standards adopted by the technical committees are circulated to the member bodies for voting. Publication as an International Standard requires approval by at least 75 % of the member bodies casting a vote.

International Standard ISO 3767-3 was prepared by Technical Committee ISO/TC 23, Tractors and machinery for agriculture and forestry, Subcommittee SC 14, Operator controls, operator symbols and other displays, operator manuals.

This second edition cancels and replaces the first edition (ISO 3767-3:1988), of which it constitutes a technical revision and expansion.

ISO 3767 consists of the following parts, under the general title Tractors, machinery for agriculture and forestry, powered lawn and garden equipment — Symbols for operator controls and other displays:

- Part 1: Common symbols
- Part 2: Symbols for agricultural tractors and machinery
- Part 3: Symbols for powered lawn and garden equipment
- Part 4: Symbols for forestry machinery
- Part 5: Symbols for manual portable forestry machinery

Annex A forms an integral part of this part of ISO 3767.

Part 3:

Symbols for powered lawn and garden equipment

1 Scope

This part of ISO 3767 establishes symbols for use on operator controls and other displays on powered lawn and garden equipment as defined in ISO 5395.

NOTE 1 The foreword lists other parts of this International Standard where symbols for specific forms of machinery and equipment may be found.

2 Normative references

The following standards contain provisions which, through reference in this text, constitute provisions of this part of ISO 3767. At the time of publication, the editions indicated were valid. All standards are subject to revision, and parties to agreements based on this part of ISO 3767 are encouraged to investigate the possibility of applying the most recent editions of the standards indicated below. Members of IEC and ISO maintain registers of currently valid International Standards.

3 Definition

For the purposes of this part of ISO 3767, the definition given in ISO 3767-1 applies.

4 General

4.1 Symbols shall be as shown in succeeding clauses of this part of ISO 3767. However, symbols, which are shown in outline form of this part of ISO 3767, may be shaded in actual use for enhanced clarity of reproduction and improved visual perception by the operator, except as otherwise noted for individual symbols.
